4. Responsibilities of Agency

The following are responsibilities of the Agency. The Agency accepts and agrees that it shall:

- A. Make available suitable job(s) at its worksite(s) and in the respective occupation(s) described in the job description(s) attached and hereby made a part of this agreement, for those eligible WCF participants who are selected and referred to the Agency by WCF.
- B. Notify WCF immediately if any participant referred by WCF would be directly supervised by a member of that person's immediate family.
- C. Assign worthwhile and meaningful work to participants during the entire time they are at the work site in accordance with the approved job description(s). Duties other than those in the attached approved job description (s) must be predetermined and mutually agreed upon by the Agency and WCF.
- D. Direct and supervise participants' work activities and training in accordance with their job description(s) and training plans.
- E. Assure that it will have supervisory personnel who will act as work site supervisors for each of the Agency's work sites so as to provide for continuous on-site supervision and training of participants at a ratio of participant(s) to staff of no more than 5:1.

- F. Orient and train their work site Supervisory personnel including any alternate staff directly responsible for the supervision of participants as to the Agency's responsibilities and obligations under this Agreement.
- G. Notify WCF immediately of any temporary and/or ongoing changes in the designation of personnel who will be supervising the participant(s).
- H. be accountable for maintaining WCF participant time sheets, supervising the proper completion of time sheets by each participant, approving participant time sheets if all prior requirements are met, and submitting these "timesheets" in a timely manner in accordance with WCF payroll procedures.
- I. require participants' conformance with the Agency's Personnel Rules of Conduct such as dress code, parking, etc.
- J. ensure that all sites where participants will be assigned are sanitary and safe environments in accordance with health and safety standards established by State and Federal law.
- K. ensure that all required safety supplies and equipment are used in the proper manner for the intended use and in accordance with all laws, including child labor laws where applicable.
- L. conform to normal routines and functions befitting a reasonable business establishment, including, but not limited to, appropriate supervision on the premises at all times, displaying positive work habits, maintaining safe working conditions, and appropriate attire.
- M. inform WCF immediately should an accident or injury occur at the job site affecting or involving a participant and require the participant to complete a first report of injury form.
- N. notify WCF by telephone of any problem or concern regarding a participant's performance at a work site as soon as possible, but at least within 24 clock hours of when the problem is identified.
- O. not discriminate against any participant or potential participant because of race, color, religion, sex, national origin, age, disability, political affiliation or belief, creed or marital status.
- P. ensure that participants receive fair and impartial treatment and that participants shall not be subjected to harassment of any type or form.
- Q. ensure that the following general working conditions are complied with:
 - 1) this work experience position(s) shall result in an increase in the Agency's level of employment and in no circumstances shall it result in the displacement of current employees or the freezing of the hiring of new employees in anticipation of this work experience participant;

- 2) there shall be no displacement or partial displacement (reduction of hours worked, wages or employment benefits) of currently employed workers nor replacement of laid-off workers by the Worksite participant(s);
 - 3) there shall be no infringement of promotional opportunities for regular employees; and
 - 4) participants shall receive comparable working conditions and non-payroll benefits such as rest breaks, lunch, etc. as other current employees;
- R. ensure that participants will not be employed in the building, operating, or maintaining of any part of any building which is used for sectarian instruction or as a place of worship.
 - S. ensure that this agreement will not impair existing contracts for services or a collective bargaining agreement between the Agency and other parties, nor will this agreement assist, promote or deter union organization.
 - T. ensure that a work experience participant under this agreement will not assist with political or lobbying activities or any activity designed to influence legislation or appropriation pending before the Congress of the United States.
 - U. not subcontract, assign or transfer any rights or responsibilities under this agreement or any portion thereof without the prior written approval of WCF.
 - V. implement administrative controls to ensure that costs for wages and other costs that the WCF is responsible for paying are not being paid by other federal, state, or local programs to eliminate the possibility of a duplication of funding.
 - W. maintain all records and files pertaining to the operation of this Agreement and any amendment hereto for three (3) years following expiration of this Agreement. Records and files shall include, but not be limited to, time and attendance sheets, supervisor assignments, this Agreement, etc.
 - X. monitor to ensure that all participants at all work sites are only performing work activities as identified in the job description attached hereto and that the Agency is complying with this Agreement. The Agency shall notify WCF of any changes to their worksite address, to the required work hours, job description, training plans and/or if the work has been completed and the job needs to end.

- Y. immediately advise WCF in writing of any actions, suits, claims or grievances filed against the Agency, WCF, State of Florida, federal officials or participants that in any way relates to this Agreement.
- Z. allow WCF, the Governor of the State of Florida, or any of its agents and/or subcontractors, and the US Department of Labor (DOL) access to the Agency's work site(s) at all reasonable hours for such purposes as monitoring the program, counseling the participants, etc.
- AA. adhere to all employment labor laws. See <http://www.osha.gov/>, <http://www.eeoc.gov/> and <http://www.youthrules.dol.gov/> for details on OSHA, EEO and Child Labor laws.
- BB. maintain the confidentiality of any information regarding participants or their immediate families which may be obtained from forms, discussions or other sources. Without permission of the participant, such information shall be divulged only as necessary for purposes related to the performance of this Agreement.
- CC. consider all work experience participants for any unsubsidized job openings which may occur with the Agency, if participants meet the necessary qualifications for the openings.

5. Responsibilities of WCF

WCF, and its designee/subcontractor, accepts and agrees that it shall;

- A. recruit, select and refer participant(s) eligible for this WCF Work Experience Internship Program to the Agency.
- B. assist the job site supervisor in resolving any problems concerning the participants' performance on the job.
- C. hear all grievances concerning program participant's performance at the job site in accordance with WCF's participant grievance procedures.
- D. provide counseling and supportive services to participants as the need is identified and budget allows.
- E. be responsible for distributing participant paychecks dependent on Agency's timely submission of properly completed and signed timesheets.
- F. WCF or its designee shall be responsible for employing the participants, paying participants for all actual hours worked, and providing Workers' Compensation coverage for all participants. Note, no fringe benefits or holiday pay is provided to these temporary workers.
- G. monitor the activities under this Agreement at the work site(s) at reasonable hours and as frequently as the authorized representatives of WCF may deem necessary in order to assure the work experience is constructive for the participant and that all provisions of this Agreement are being carried out. Require corrective action within specified time periods or remove participants from work sites without prior notice other than a written notification to be delivered to the Agency at the time of the removal. This action may be taken when WCF, the Governor of the State of Florida or DOL finds serious or continual violations of rules or laws, where violations are not being remedied, or where WCF, the Governor of the State of Florida or DOL find noncompliance on any of the terms or conditions under this Agreement.
- H. furnish the Agency with copies of all procedures, forms, etc. which it deems necessary for the proper conduct by the Agency.

6. Hold Harmless

Without waiving its sovereign immunity, and if and to the extent allowed by law, each party shall indemnify and hold harmless each other, its officers, officials, and employees from and against all claims and liabilities of any nature or kind, including costs and expenses for or on account of any claims, damages, losses, or expenses of any character whatsoever resulting in whole or in part from the negligent performance or omission of either party's employees or representatives connected with the activities described herein.

In agreeing to provide direction, training and supervision of the participant, the Agency understands that this does not make WCF or its designee liable to the Agency or any third party by reason of any future act or failure to act by any participant on or off the job.

7. Changes to the Agreement

This agreement may be modified or amended as necessary by the issuance of a written modification, signed and dated by both parties.

8. Termination

This Agreement may be terminated as follows:

- A. WCF or the Agency may terminate the Agreement for convenience upon thirty- (30) calendar day prior written notice to the other party.
- B. WCF may terminate this Agreement in whole or in part at any time that the WCF Executive Director, in his/her sole judgment, determines that:
 - 1) the Agency has failed to comply with any of the provisions contained in this Agreement or any modification hereto;
 - 2) the Agency fails to perform in whole or in part under this Agreement or fails to take corrective action after receiving oral or written requests to do so within an appropriate time period as may be stipulated by WCF; or

- 3) the United States Department of Labor or State of Florida fails to provide adequate funds, reduces, eliminates or otherwise terminates the program under which this Agreement is written.

9. Notice

Other than as provided herein, notice shall be required to be given to WCF under this Agreement, and shall be sufficient when hand delivered or mailed to WCF at its office at 707 Mendham Boulevard, Ste. 250, Orlando FL 32825, Attn: Executive Director All notices required to be given to the Agency under this Agreement shall be sufficient when hand delivered or mailed to the Agency at its office located at the address identified in paragraph one, page one of this Agreement.

10. Controlling Laws

This agreement and the provisions contained herein shall be construed; controlled and interpreted according to the laws of the State of Florida.

IN WITNESS THEREOF, the parties hereto having been duly authorized and representing that they have the power and authority to execute this Agreement and perform the responsibilities specified herein have made and executed this Agreement on the respective dates under each signature.
